Subject: RE: [EXT] Re: Opioids - MLAs - Corrected Filings

Special Master Cohen,

As you know, in the correspondence below the PEC proposed to update the list of Amending Plaintiffs seeking leave to amend by September 1, 2024, to delete any plaintiffs that will not be pursuing amendment. Since then, certain defendants have sought and received a 60+ day extension of their deadline to respond to the Amending Plaintiffs' motions, pushing their deadline to December 6, 2024. In light of the large number of plaintiffs that sought to be included in these motions, and the complicating factor of obtaining information during the summer months, the PEC requests a limited extension of the September 1, 2024 deadline to September 15, 2024.

Nine of the 14 defendants that are the subject of the Motions for Leave to Amend (Albertsons, Aurolife/Aurobindo, Costco Wholesale, Discount Drug Mart, Express Scripts, KVK-Tech, Lupin Pharmaceuticals, OptumRx, Publix, and Tris) have indicated that they do not oppose this request. Notably, the PBMs, against whom the largest number of plaintiffs have moved to amend (over 2,000), are among those that do not oppose this request. See attached Exhibits A and B. The remaining defendants have not responded to the PEC's inquiry.

Because this short extension will still leave the defendants with over 75 days until their oppositions are due, and will only reduce the number of plaintiffs seeking to amend, the PEC contends this limited extension to September 15, 2024 is warranted.

Respectfully,

Paulina do Amaral

Subject: [EXT] Re: Opioids - MLAs - Corrected Filings

Thank you for your emails.

These missives assert arguments and counter-arguments that can be made in the response and reply briefs related to the motions to amend. The only exception is "Publix['s] request[]" that the PEC/Plaintiffs be compelled to immediately identify every plaintiff which did not provide the required authorization as of July 29, 2024." This request is denied.

The PEC states it will "provide updated lists of the Amending Plaintiffs again on September 1, 2024," addressing "authorizing entities [that] have not yet had an opportunity to meet to approve addition of these defendants." This procedure was contemplated and approved at the hearing before Judge Polster. See transcript at 8-9 (May 30, 2024) (the Court agreeing the PEC could have the month of August to obtain authorizations from dilatory clients, but requiring motions to be filed on July 22 (later, July 29) that addressed the great bulk of plaintiffs). The PEC's final deadline of September 1 to update its list comes three weeks before Publix's response brief is due, which the Court earlier concluded was and is sufficient. (Note – the PEC must, on September 1, also identify precisely how its updated lists are different from the existing lists.)

The Court will address all of the parties' arguments once the motions to amend are fully briefed.

Subject: Re: Opioids - MLAs - Corrected Filings

Dear Special Master Cohen:

The PEC has diligently and appropriately followed the court's order lifting the moratorium on filing amended complaints in preparing and filing the motions for leave to file amended complaints adding defendants to already existing cases. The civil rules and the court's scheduling order provide Publix the opportunity to respond in a reply brief. This email to SM Cohen is inappropriate and unnecessarily nasty in both tone and content.

One of Publix's complaints concerns our assertion that some of the plaintiff's counsel have not yet obtained permission from some of their clients to file the amended complaints. Publix ignores the fact that at the hearing on May 22, 2024, Judge Polster specifically addressed this issue and allowed for official permission to file be obtained after the deadline. The colloquy was as follows:

MR. MOUGEY: Your Honor, this is Peter Mougey. Our group represents about 750 cities and counties, and the only caveat I have, I think 60 days is reasonable but over the summer, a lot of cities and counties cancel board and council meetings, and just with the caveat that I think Pete is right, 60 days is sufficient, with the caveat that a lot of cities and counties go dark over the summer. And I just want to give that, like I said, a caveat out there in the event --

THE COURT: All right. Well, look. What you can do, I mean if -- Peter, if you have a situation like that, say we come to July 20th and a given subdivision doesn't have any meetings until August, just say, you can include them in the motion and say that, you know, that the officials want to add Defendant X. And so you're adding to the list. But this has to be formally done at the council meeting or whatever in August. So I mean I think that's the way to do it.

The PEC will respond to Publix's filed response in its reply brief at the appropriate time.

We also request that Ms. White's email be stricken or ignored in its entirety.

Respectfully,
Pete Weinberger, PEC liaison counsel

Subject: RE: Opioids - MLAs - Corrected Filings

Special Master Cohen,

While preserving all of its rights to oppose the Motion to Amend, Publix is compelled to respond to the email below. The PEC continues to ignore and mock the Court and JPML in dragging out this now almost 7-year old MDL with new claims. As one example, the Court previously directed the PEC to dismiss claims brought on behalf of territories where a defendant did not operate. See, e.g., Dkt. 3685 (4/7/2021). Yet, years later claims against Publix involving territories where Publix has never operated a single pharmacy remain docketed (as examples, Peach County, Georgia, and Bay Minette, Loxley, Robertsedale, Summerdale, Hartselle and Prichard in Alabama). Worse yet, the PEC's latest filing now seeks to add still more of the same (for example, Sheriff of Peach County, Georgia, Russell County and Columbiana in Alabama, and Florida City in Florida).

As another example, more than two years ago the JPML closed the MDL to new claims. See JPML No. 2804, Dkt. ## 9586 (4/8/22) ("... inclusion of these two actions and any future actions in MDL No. 2804 is no longer necessary to achieve the just and efficient conduct of the litigation."). Yet, new claims were later added against Publix anyway (for example, City of Sarasota, Florida, 1:22-op-45021-DAP). Now, despite late-added complaints against Publix – which incorporated dispensing-based claims -- the PEC seeks to add still more new claims on behalf of overlapping territories covering conduct by the same pharmacies. For example, the PEC impermissibly late-filed its City of Sarasota, Florida claim against Publix based on dispensing conduct of Publix's Sarasota pharmacies. In its latest filing, the PEC now seeks to add a claim against Publix on behalf of the County of Sarasota, Florida which likewise is based on dispensing conduct of Publix's Sarasota pharmacies. It is disingenuous to claim on the one hand a good faith basis to bring an action more than two years ago on behalf of the City of Sarasota based on the dispensing conduct of Publix's Sarasota pharmacies while on the other hand claiming the County of Sarasota (where the City of Sarasota is the County seat) could only just now seek to do the same thing.

Most recently, through multiple extensions, the Court granted the PEC more than two months to file motions to amend, including a last-minute additional 24-hour extension on July 29, 2024 sought by the PEC so it could ensure the filings complied with the Court's orders, Dkt. ## 5455 and 5522. See 7/29/2024 email from do Amaral, Paulina to Special Master Cohen, et al. The Court's main order on this issue (Dkt. # 5455) communicated simple and clear directions:

- "... review every case carefully and dismiss any defendant that plaintiff's counsel does not intend to zealously pursue in litigation." No claims appear to have been dismissed pursuant to this direction, not even claims where a defendant like Publix has never operated a single pharmacy.
- "Lead counsel for each plaintiff seeking amendment of any listed complaint shall sign the motion to indicate that-should any of the listed cases be chosen as a bellwether-both counsel and plaintiff-client are prepared to spend the time and money necessary to litigate the case against each defendant."

Two days after the extended deadline for filing the motions to amend, the PEC, without requesting or receiving the Court's permission:

- late-filed another iteration of its motion in which it seeks to add still more new claims as to Publix,
- made clear even this post-deadline filing was still only tentative because the PEC hasn't obtained all of its clients' permissions to assert new claims against Publix, and
- unilaterally granted itself an extension until September 1st in order to comply with the Court's order and provide another version of its motion which purportedly will delete the clients which have not authorized a claim against Publix. See 8/1/2024 email from do Amaral, Paulina to Special Master Cohen, et al.

Enough is enough.

The PEC concedes in writing below that its motion against Publix does not satisfy basic requirements of the Court's Order (Dkt. # 5455). The PEC cannot claim in good faith clients, which have not even authorized a claim against Publix, "are prepared to spend the time and money necessary to litigate the case against [Publix]." Because the PEC has been intentionally vague about it, Publix requests that the PEC/Plaintiffs be compelled to immediately identify every plaintiff which did not provide the required authorization as of July 29, 2024 (the date it filed its motion as to Publix). At a minimum, Publix should not be expected to spend the time and incur the expense associated with responding to the PEC's blatantly deficient filing as to those plaintiffs. Regardless, Publix also will address this flagrant violation in greater detail in its Opposition and in connection therewith expects the Court will adhere to its Order (Dkt. # 5455) and issue appropriate sanctions at that time if it has not done so sooner.

Thank you,
Meredith, Counsel for Publix

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Opioids - MLAs - Corrected Filings

Caution: This email originated from outside the Firm.

Dear Special Master Cohen,

The PEC today has filed corrected versions of 8 of the 15 briefs we filed on July 29 and 30, 2024.

The first brief filed today is the PEC's Corrected Roadmap Overview For Motions for Leave to Amend. Two substantive changes were made to the brief and two changes were made to Exhibit 1. The first substantive change to the brief corrects the list of defendants contained in footnote 2 for which the parties jointly sought, and the Court has granted, extensions of the deadline to amend. See Doc. #5545. The second change to the brief adds three sentences at pages 14-15 related to the motions seeking to add the pharmacy defendants, which were filed the day after the original Roadmap was filed. Beyond these two corrections, there are a number of non-substantive corrections that were made to the Roadmap brief, which are noted in the attached comparison document provided to the Court and the parties for their convenience.

The changes to the Roadmap's Exhibit 1 include corrections to the list of plaintiffs, including the deletion of one case, and the addition of three cases that were inadvertently omitted from the initial charts, all identified below. We note that, because there are some plaintiffs whose authorizing entities have not yet had an opportunity to meet to approve addition of these defendants, it is possible that there may be some additional deletions to the list of Amending Plaintiffs. Unless the Court prefers otherwise, to avoid repetitive submissions, the PEC will provide updated lists of the Amending Plaintiffs again on September 1, 2024, if there are any further deletions.

The remaining seven briefs for which corrections have been filed on the docket are the pharmacy briefs. The PEC provides the following list of errata identifying scrivener's errors that were inadvertently included in the versions of those documents filed on July 30, 2024. For three of the seven briefs, the only change is to correct the page number reference to the Corrected Roadmap brief.

In addition to the below, for each brief, "Corrected" was added to the title and the date in the signature block and certificate of service was updated.
